Subject: RE: Draft Demobilization Plan

Good Morning,

Thank you for the plan. From an operational perspective, it looks comprehensive.

Can we possibly add some information at the start about the authorities we have to move vehicles and people from roadways?

Christiane, if someone from your team is able to assist in this to make sure everyone is clear on when and why we will be making the ask, towing vehicles and/or making arrests, should it come to that. Can we also give some consideration to people who are not on roadway but camping or "dug in" somewhere and obviously depending on who's jurisdiction it will change, but some general statements.

Mike S, Is it possible to lay out some of the details on what steps your ESU/POU folks will take as they attempt to clear roadways in broad terms (i.e. We ask. We tell. We tow. We arrest) or whatever that looks like?

Can we make mention of what we will do about arrests- will there be hand off teams? Special Constables, Prisoner van etc.? Would we be prepared for mass arrests in cells- or would we be looking to release on conditions?

Finally, what resources do we have available and when to actually perform the tows? Can we check with Metro as to how many tows they can provide- would they do standby; what if it was in the overnight hours, etc? Just so we have some contingencies.

Thank you all for the effort- it is very much appreciated.

If its at all possible to have something prepared by middle of the afternoon today, it would be excellent.

If, as a group, you think a quick conversation with everyone is required, happy to get something set up.

Trish

SSgt Stoll,

I'm assuming you'll be the ESU Commander later today and as such I'd like you to have eyes on this Draft Demobilization Plan prepared by Insp. Marin.

I was hoping you'd be able to review it and provide input as you see fit. Looking at any role your team may play in facilitating the departure of the convoy.

I welcome your input.

Thanks Mike.

Paul
